Chapters 5-7 in Economic Shalom deal with questions of markets and criticisms thereof. Chapter 6 and 7 specifically address issues of concern religious believers often have with markets.

Do you think markets make us more self-interested and less altruistic or charitable?

A yes or no answer will not earn a good grade. You must defend your position.